

Our History

It is a little surprising to find Welsh Culture alive and well amongst the dreaming spires of Oxford.

Many Welshmen came to Oxford in the dark days of the 1920's depression looking for work. They were attracted by the offer of jobs in the rapidly expanding car factory. Our choir is their legacy.

It was from these inauspicious beginnings that enthusiastic and talented Welshmen came together to form what is now the Oxford Welsh Male Voice Choir.

Formed in 1928 and still with many members with strong Welsh ties, the choir still prides itself in following the Welsh traditions and it is only on one day a year when there is any real dispute amongst the ranks - the annual Wales vs. England rugby match!

Choir Style

Our range is wide and varied, and our concerts are a careful balanced selection of pieces. Of course we always include traditional Welsh hymns and folk songs loved by generations but we also enjoy music from other genres and cultures.

Songs for your wedding will be discussed with the family beforehand, whether it's classical pieces by the likes of Mozart or Verdi, songs from musicals such as Les Miserables or classics by Elvis Presley or Robbie Williams

A few examples of our favourites include:
Cwm Rhondda, Men of Harlech, Myfanwy and Calon Lân.

All of Me, Let it Be, She, The Rose,
Danny Boy and Unchained Melody.

We sing in vast cathedrals, small churches and private venues.

We would be delighted to bring a special touch to your personal day.

Our Services

We are available to sing at either your wedding or the reception or both.

Our musical director will happily get in touch with you, to discuss the music and also the Choristers uniform. They have both red and blue uniforms for the family to choose from.

Price on application. For more information please visit our website or contact us.
